

1. The Brookings Allée, one of the most impressive arrival vistas of any University.

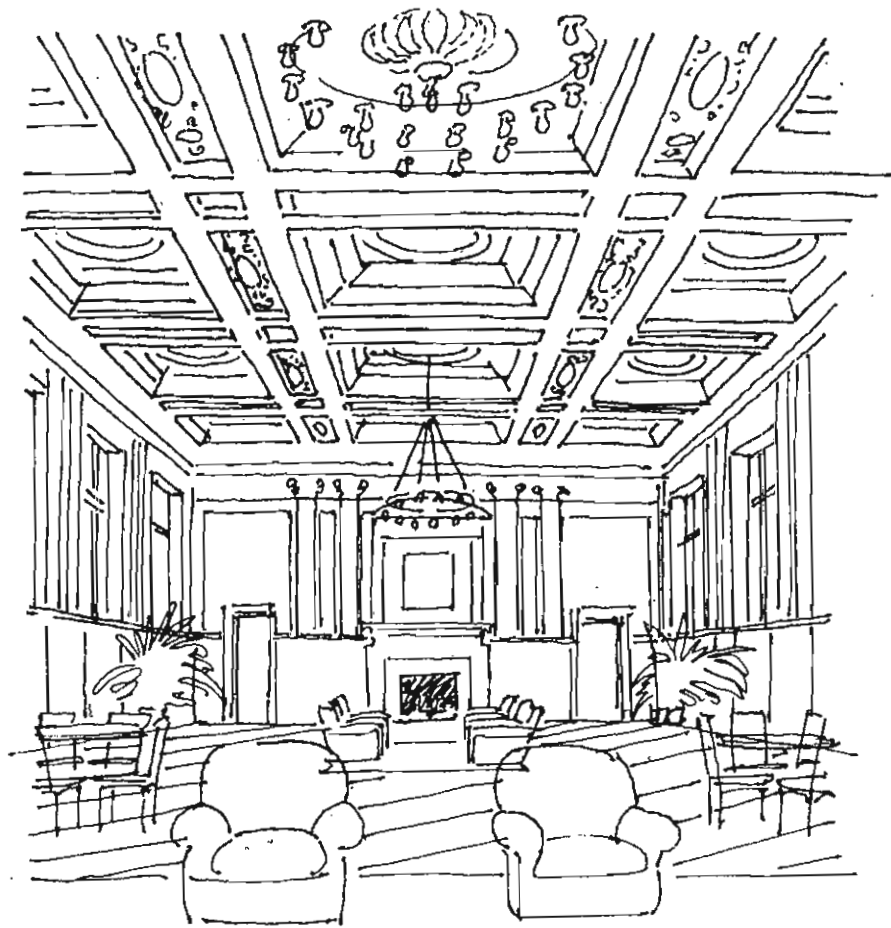

2. Brookings Hall, an impressive symbol and gateway -

3. the Brookings Quad, one of the finest outdoor spaces of American campus design.

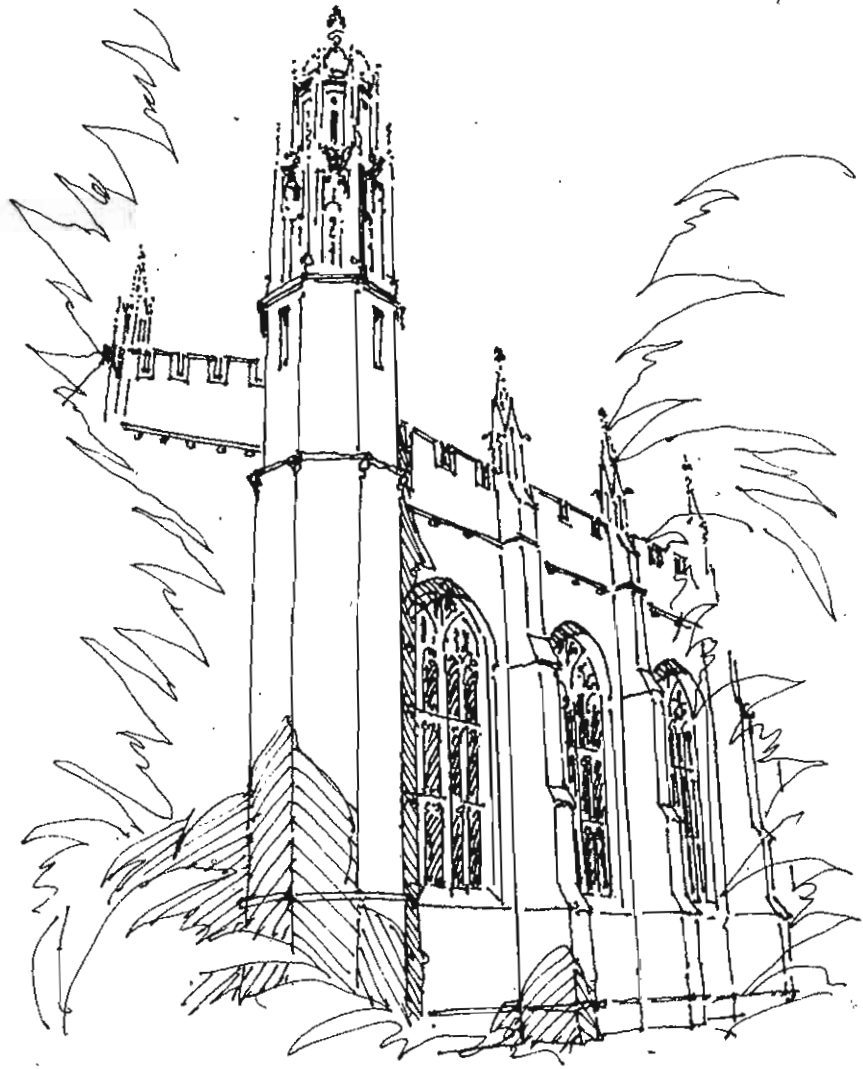

4. The Ridgley Arcade, framing the west side of the quadrangle, graciously receives all visitors.

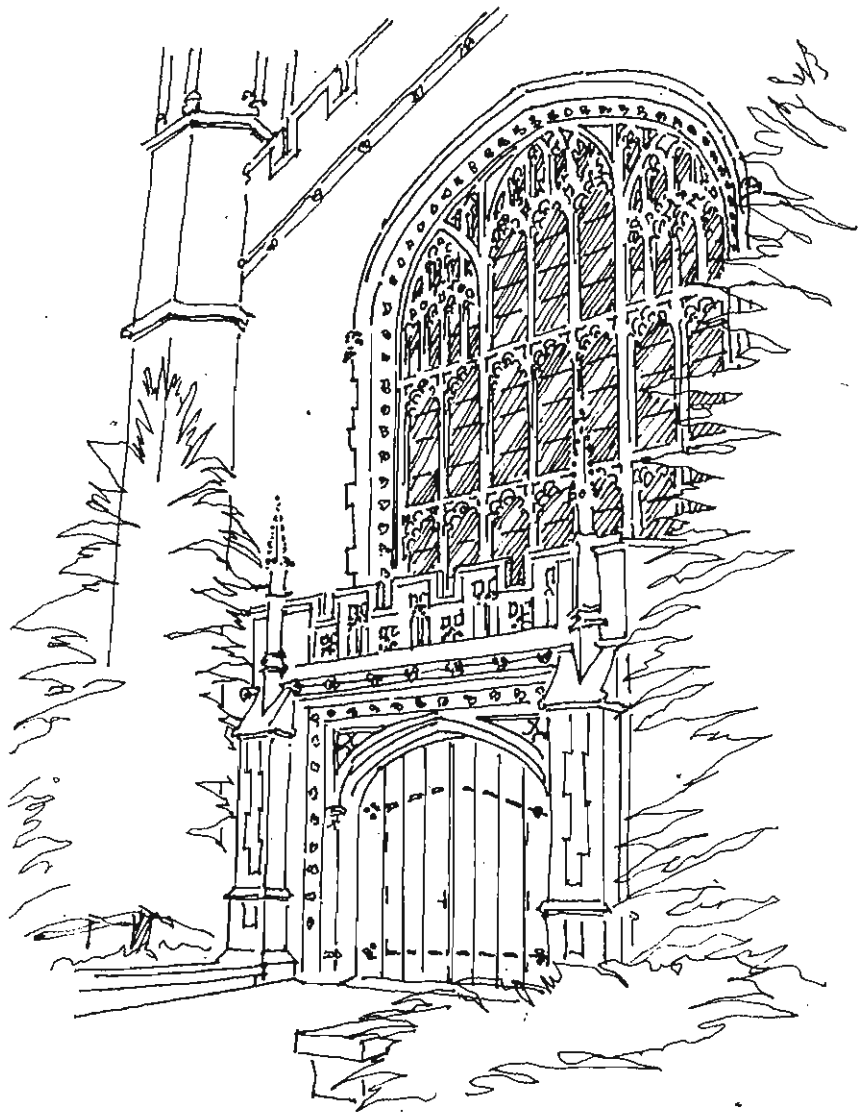

5. Holmes Lounge, a spectacular room,
a fitting complement to the quad...

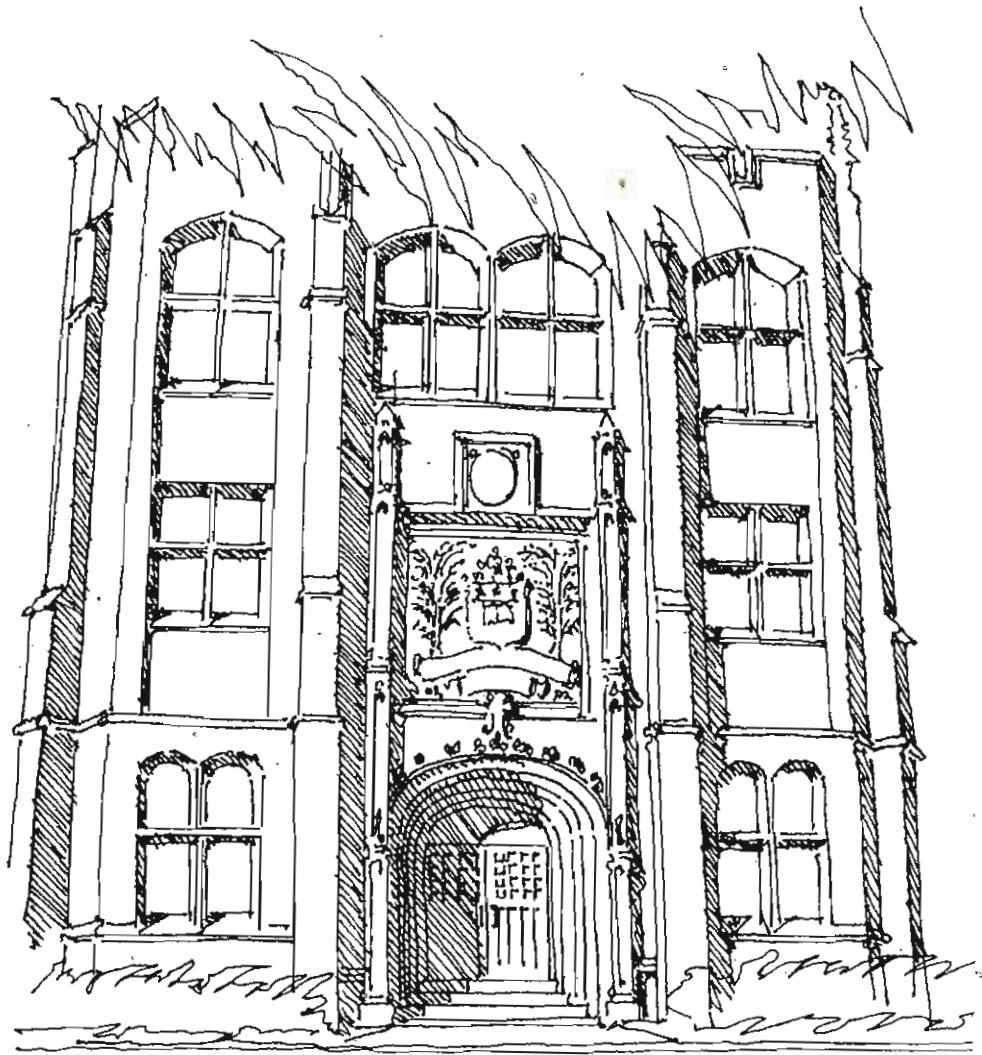

6. one of Cope + Stewardson's great East-West axes; the entry to Oak Allée ...

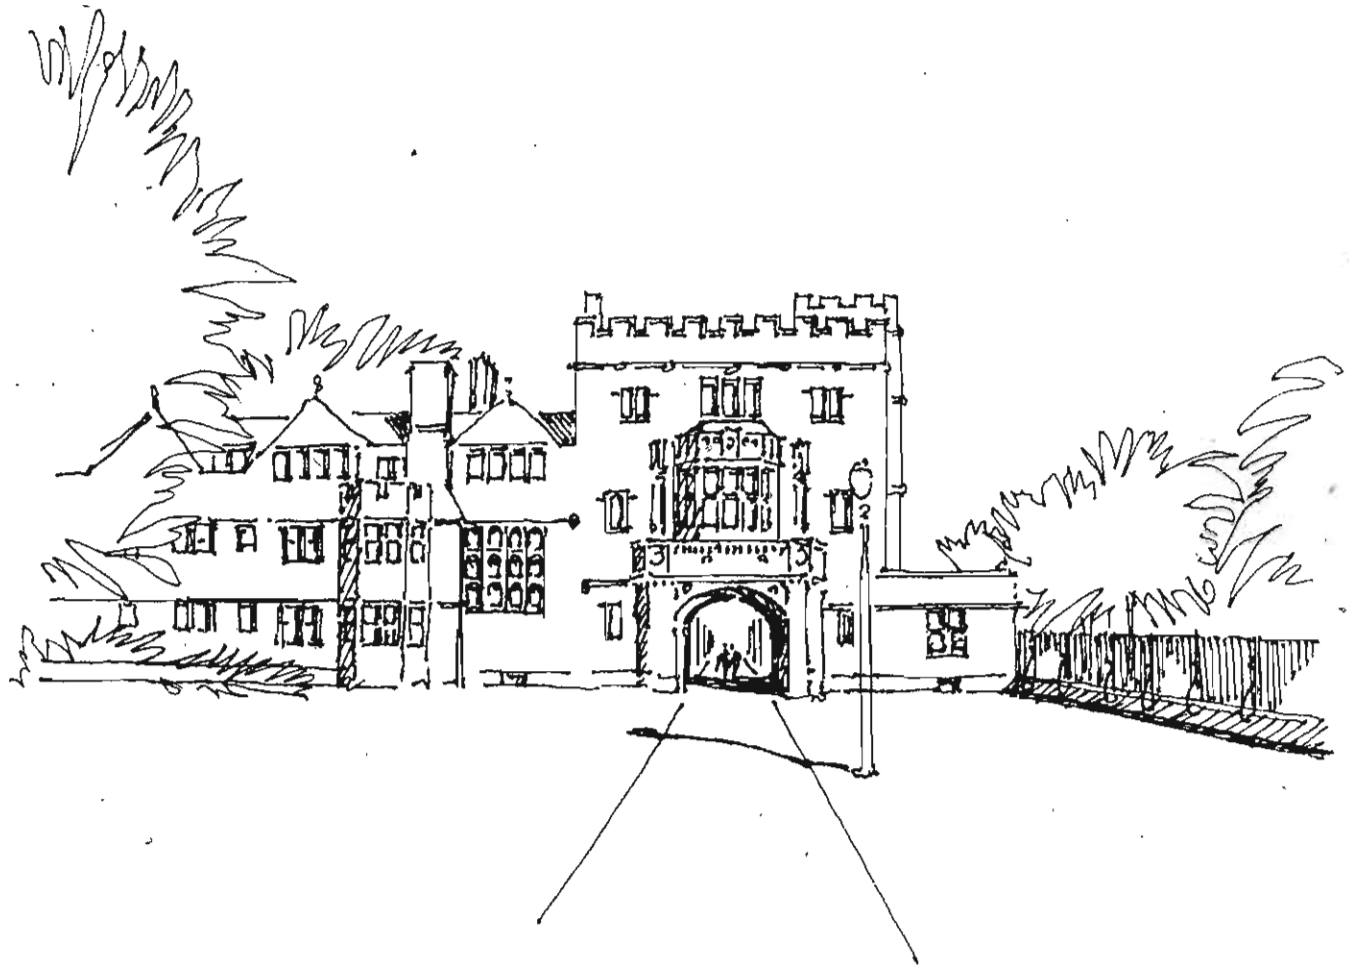

7. Graham Chapel, the spiritual heart of campus, a smaller version of King's College Chapel in Cambridge ...

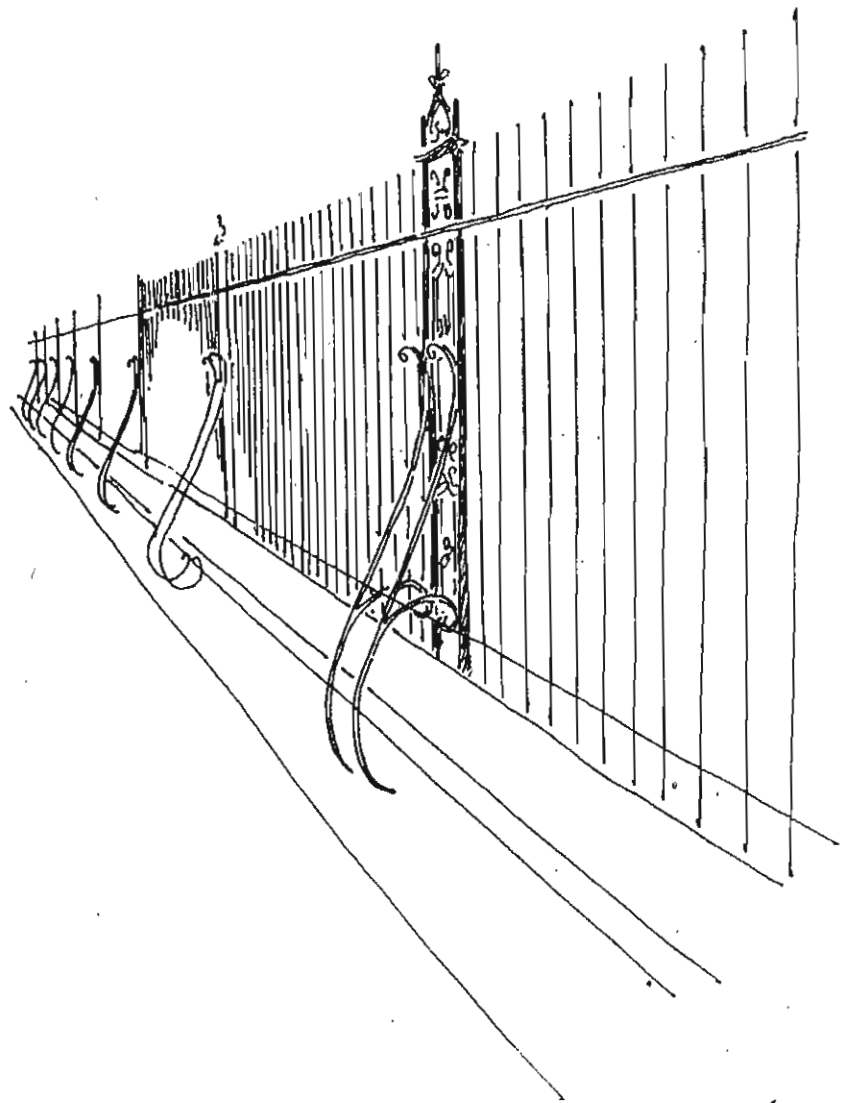

8. Entry to Graham Chapel, a special entry, a special place...

9. Rebstock, south entry, simple Laboratory building yet dignified....

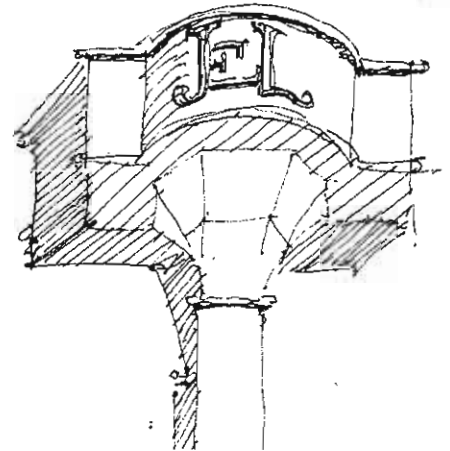

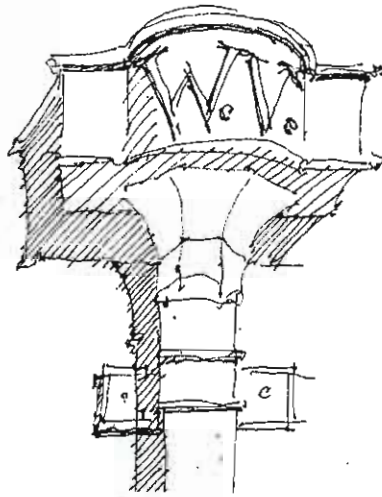

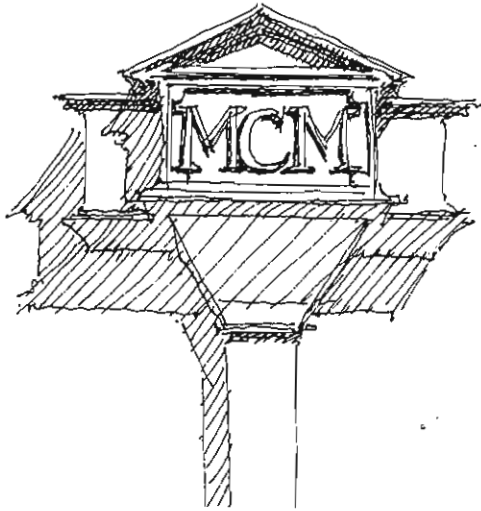

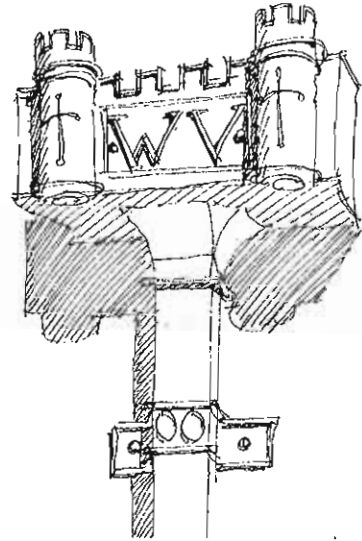

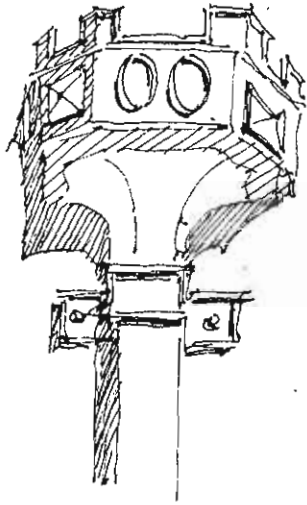

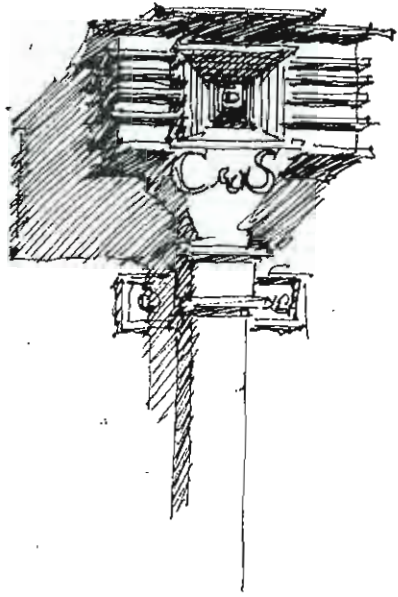

10. McMillan Tower and courtyard, end of an axis, beautiful space, lively architectural composition.

11. Fence at McMillan courtyard, beautiful and simple...

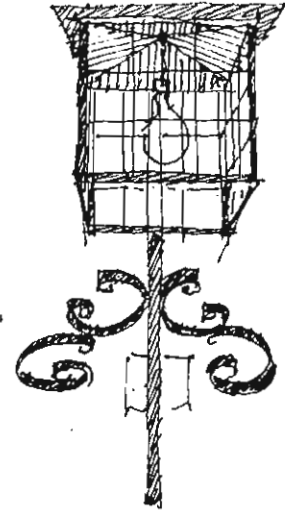

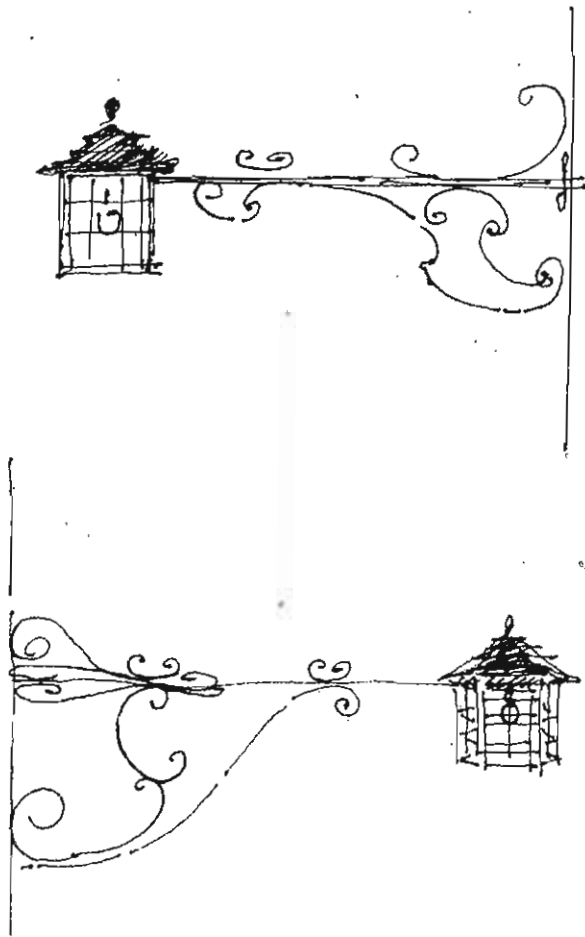

12. Umrath courtyard, articulated bay....

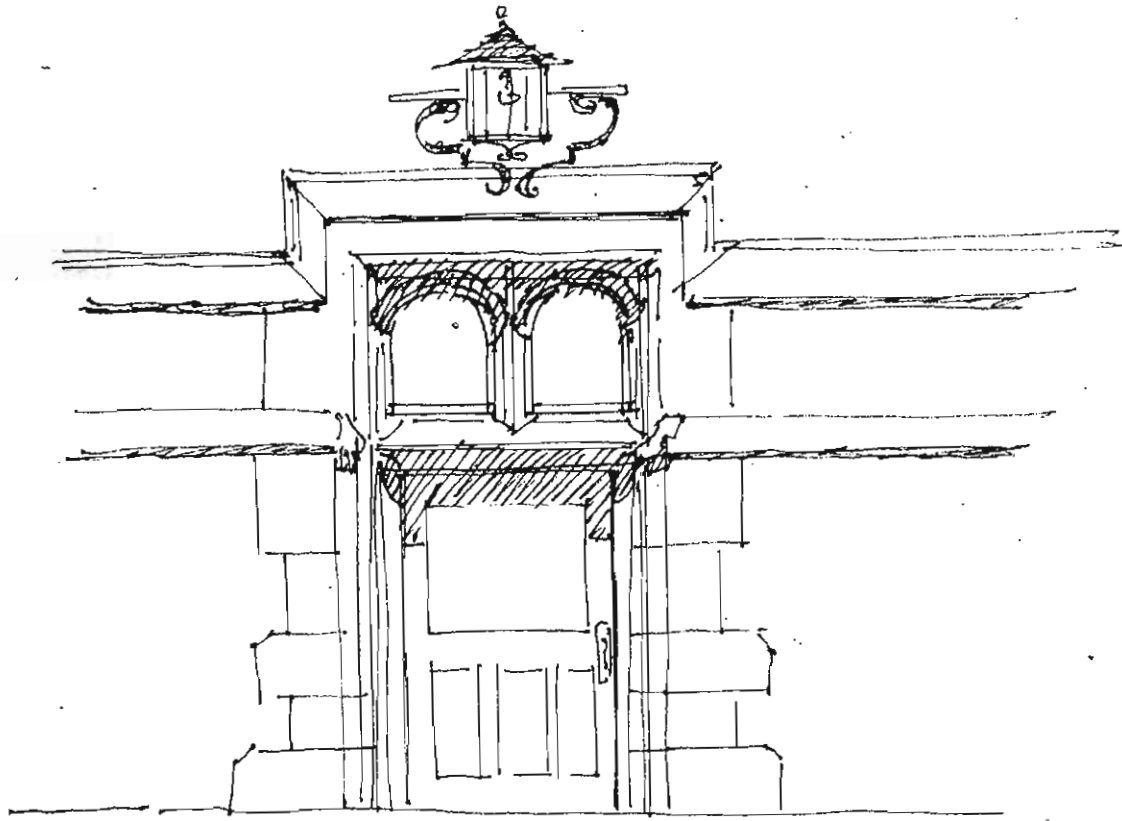

13.

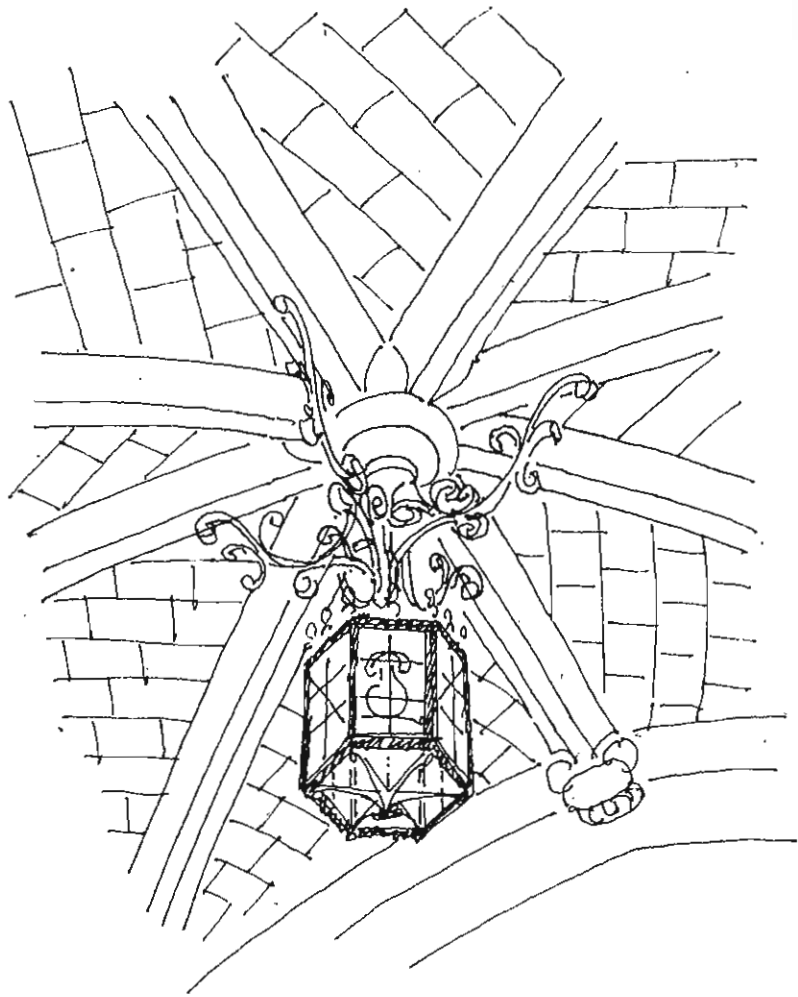

conductor boxes, the architect's imagination and sense of humor... more than thirty variations.

14. Light fixtures. a major design opportunity with great flourish...

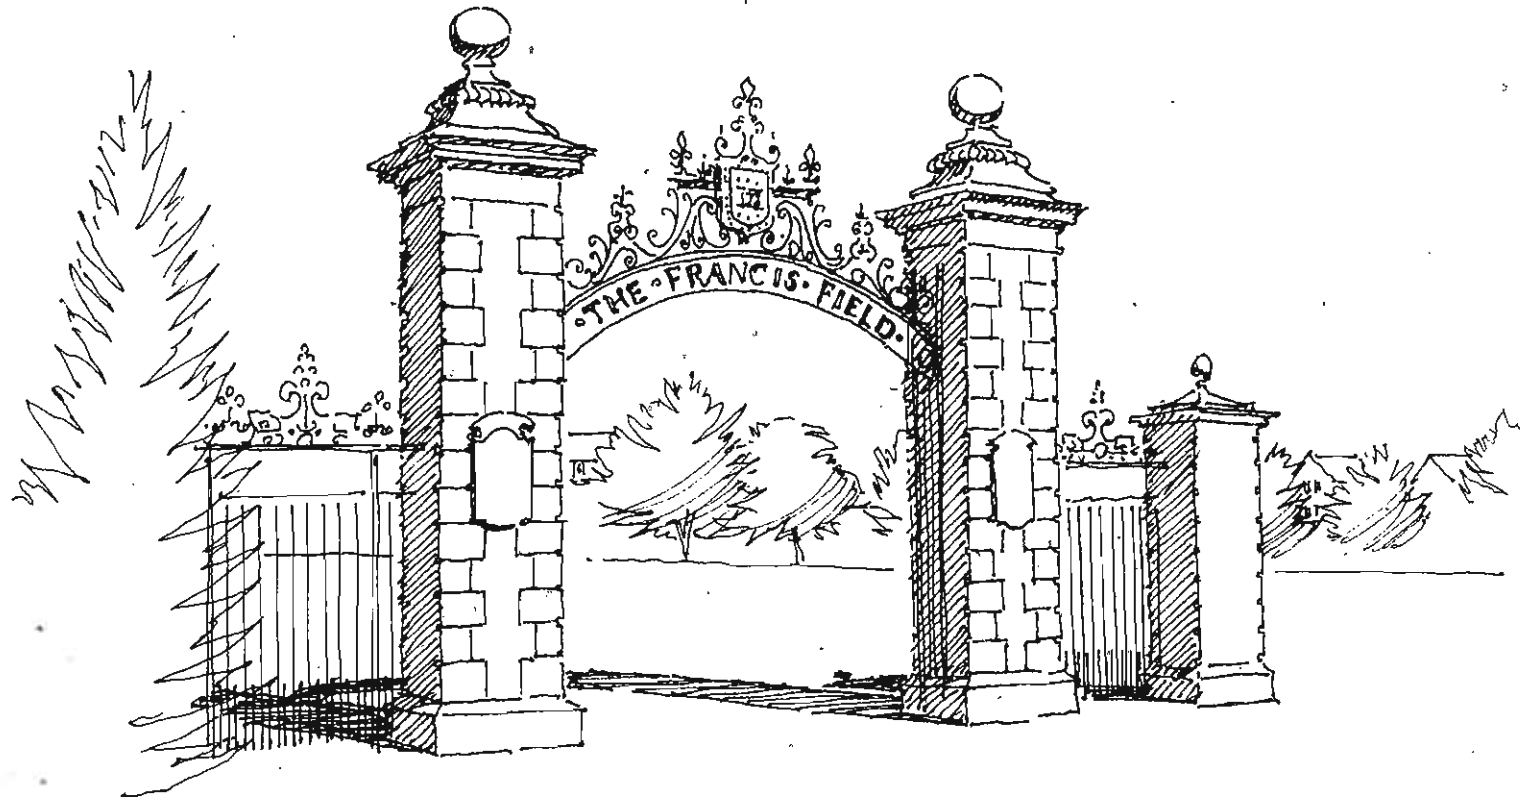

15. South entry to Brookings ...

16. Chandelier in Umvath Archway...

17. Umrath Hall, four distinctly different and unique entries ...

18. Gate from the 1904 Olympics

19,

Whittmore House, distinguished residence that serves as the faculty club